

Operation Observation

September 26, 2017

1 PURPOSE

The purpose of the observation is to observe the situation which must be simulated. This is done to make an assessment of what must be included in the design.

2 METHOD

To analyse and retrieve information in the matter the main method used is doing a contextual inquiry. This includes the different analysing models and interviews.
The observation team acquired both pictures, notes and some video from the operation.

3 RESULTS

4 CONCLUSION